

Storm is coming Atmospheric wash

Photo reference for the class work

Galetta Road & Upper Dwyer Hill Road, Mississippi Mills, Ontario, Canada

Arches, Rough

Iya Carson, 2018

What to do before the class:

Please print the classwork reference (photo above) and transfer the image to your watercolour paper.

How to transfer the image:

1. Print it in colour or black/white.
2. Hang the printed image on a big sunny window
3. Tape the watercolour paper over the printed image
4. Trace the image using a soft pencil (2B).
5. You need only the barn silhouette and line of horizon.

Materials and tools:

Paper (cotton preferable) 1 sheet;

Paint:

Paynes' Grey

Burnt Umber

Ultramarine

Red Quinacridone

Neutral Tint

Any light yellow colour or any ochre colour (optional)

White pen (Gelly Roll, Sakura)

Pencil and eraser

Flat brush and round brushes, big and small

Plexiglass board

Hair dryer

Paper towel

Homework inspiration ideas:

